Executive Summary

Amending the Sheriff's 2012 Budget to Use Equitably Shared Funds

The Department of Justice Asset Forfeiture Program is a nationwide law enforcement initiative that removes the tools of crime from criminal organizations and deprives wrongdoers of the proceeds of their crimes. Federal law authorizes the Attorney General to share federally forfeited property with participating state and local law enforcement agencies.

Equitably shared funds are required to be used by law enforcement agencies for law enforcement purposes only. The intent of the transfer is to enhance law enforcement. It must increase, not supplant the recipient's appropriated operating budget.

For their participation in the program, the Sheriff's Office received funds in the amount of $28,876. The Sheriff's Office plans to use $28,876 of equitably shared funds to purchase the items listed below.

- Executive Summary -

The Department of Public Works (DPW) included adding a new electrical service and lights and electrical receptacles in a dry storage building and salt dome at the main DPW shop in its 2011 approved budget. There is no longer enough electrical capacity to power these additions from the current electrical service to the main shop and garage. Therefore a second service has to be run in.

Besides lighting the two buildings, the Department intends to install electrical outlets to be used to maintain batteries and engine block heaters for certain winter equipment. This equipment then can be relocated from inside the main garage to make room for other, more frequently used winter equipment that is crowding the garages.

The Department, in conjunction with the county Purchasing Division, solicited bids to make these additions. Staff is recommending the award of a contract to Agsun Corporation of Janesville, WI in the amount of $23,950 for the total project. They were the lowest responsible bidder on the project.

Funding and authorization for the project was carried forward from 2011 to 2012 in the customary resolution approved by the County Board earlier. It is proposed to reallocate these funds or defer projects within the Department’s Buildings & Grounds capital projects in 2012 to fund this project.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Funds are included in the 2012 budget for the purchase of two motorcycles to be used by the Rock County Sheriff's Office. Bids were solicited, and two dealers responded. Kutter Harley-Davidson of Janesville, Wisconsin was awarded the bid.

To better serve the citizens of Rock County, motorcycles will be utilized to help offset rising fuel costs and to help reduce carbon emissions. The use of motorcycles allows patrol deputies to easily maneuver through traffic and to respond to calls for service.

From May through October of 2011, three deputies, who were highly trained and certified in the use of police motorcycles, operated leased motorcycles during their patrol assignments. In addition to patrol assignments of calls for service and traffic enforcement efforts, the deputies rode the motorcycles during numerous parades, funerals, and community sponsored events.

In 2012 the Sheriff's Office plans to have five trained deputies for the motorcycle patrol.

The Sheriff's Office and Purchasing staff have reviewed Kutter Harley-Davidson's bid specifications and recommend purchasing two FLHTP Electra Glide Police Motorcycles. The total cost for two motorcycles is $38,000.

Executive Summary

Rock County has utilized Pictometry’s aerial images since 2006. Since that time, many county departments have grown dependent on these images as a tool for their respective work. Additionally, electronic copies of the images are supplied to other municipalities within the county for their use.

Pictometry Online enhances the county’s investment by allowing easier distribution of the images to a broader range of users. Whereas today, each new user requires the installation and configuration of specialized software, Pictometry Online will allow general users to access the images via a standard web browser.

Rock County previously purchased the images displayed by Pictometry Online.

Funding for Pictometry Online is included within the 2012 Rock County Communications Center budget.

This resolution authorizes the County to purchase Pictometry’s self-hosted solution, Pictometry Online at a cost not to exceed $14,599.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

ENDORSE THE ROCK COUNTY, BELOIT-JANESVILLE BICYCLE ROUTE CORRIDOR
MASTER PLAN AND FEASIBILITY STUDY

The Rock County Parks Outdoor Recreation and Open Space Plan encourages the establishment of on-road routes and off-road trail connections within the county that improve regional transportation options for bicycles and pedestrians and at the same time enhance the value of existing and planned residential, recreational, and economic development areas in the county.

The Rock Trail Coalition, Inc., a 501(c)3 non-profit organization, is coordinating a project to connect the cities of Beloit and Janesville with an off-road transportation corridor for bicycling and pedestrian uses.

The City of Janesville has an extensive bike trail system with over 20 miles of paved trail. Janesville is linked to Milton via Rock County’s Ice Age Trail connector; following the abandoned Chicago Northwestern rail corridor.

The City of Beloit is continuing to develop its trail system with several miles of existing trail and more in the planning stage. Beloit is linking to the Hononegah Trail System in northern Illinois.

The Beloit to Janesville connection will provide a valuable link between the two trail systems to the north and the south.

Executive Summary

Recommending Passage of 2011 Assembly Bill 54, Committee on Children and Families, to Amend Wis. Stats. 767 Relating to Equalizing Physical Placement to the Highest Degree

The Wisconsin Assembly previously passed this bill, but it was not passed in the Senate Committee. The Assembly Bill was reintroduced in this session and a public hearing was held at the State Capitol on April 6, 2011. Supervisor Immis listened to lengthy testimony on both sides of this issue and was very impressed with the testimony of Mr. Richard Badger. This bill does not take away the power of family court judges to protect children from unhealthy situations such as child or domestic abuse. It is not intended as a tool to modify the payment of child support. Under current law, judges have wide discretion on how to allocate periods of physical placement (visitation) between households of divorced parents. If mediation fails, the parties enter an adversarial court process in which “experts” make recommendations to the court, often based on well-intentioned but false evidence. The standards for evidence in family court are less stringent than in criminal court. Unequal placement often results from false allegations that were difficult to disprove. (This is the opposite of “innocent until proven guilty.”)

Our current family court system is a win-lose situation in which one party gets most of the time with the child and the other party pays most of the bills. Assembly Bill 54 still leaves most of the power in the hands of judges to decide placement and visitation. However, it asks judges to “presume that a placement schedule that equalizes to the highest degree the amount of time the child may spend with each parent is to the child’s best interest.” The presumptions may be rebutted by “clear and convincing evidence.” This will reduce the temptation of the parties to make false accusations of abuse. It will help to “level the playing field” in family court so that dads, moms and children can all be winners.
2011 ASSEMBLY BILL 54

March 21, 2011 – Introduced by Representatives PRIDEMORE, MURSAU, VOS, KLEEFISH, HONADEL and ZIEGELBAUER, cosponsored by Senators LASEE and LAZICH. Referred to Committee on Children and Families.

1 AN ACT to repeal 767.451 (1) (b) 3.; to amend 767.41 (4) (a) 2., 767.41 (6) (a) and 767.451 (1) (b) 2. (Intro.); to repeal and recreate 767.451 (1) (b) 2. a. and 767.451 (1) (b) 2. b.; and to create 767.41 (5) (am) 5m. of the statutes; relating to: equalizing physical placement to the highest degree, requiring the court to state the reasons for ordering sole legal custody or not equalizing physical placement, and standards for modifying legal custody or physical placement.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, in an action affecting the family, such as a divorce or a paternity action, a court must determine the legal custody of a minor child based on the best interest of the child. In current law, there is a presumption that joint legal custody is in the child’s best interest. The court also must allocate periods of physical placement between the parties. The court is required to set a placement schedule that allows the child to have regularly occurring, meaningful periods of physical placement with each parent and that maximizes the amount of time the child may spend with each parent, taking into consideration geographic separation and accommodations for different households. The court may deny periods of physical placement with a parent only if the court finds that the physical placement would endanger the child’s physical, mental, or emotional health. When determining custody and periods of physical placement, the court is required, under current law, to consider a number of factors (custody and placement factors), such as the wishes... of the child and of the parties, the interaction and interrelationship of the child with his or her parents, the amount and quality of time that each party has spent with the child in the past, the child's adjustment to the home, school, and community, and the cooperation and communication between the parties.

This bill provides that, when the court allocates periods of physical placement, instead of maximizing the amount of time a child may spend with each parent, taking into consideration geographic separation and accommodations for different households, the court must presume that a placement schedule that equalizes to the highest degree the amount of time the child may spend with each parent is in the child's best interest. This presumption may be rebutted if the court finds by clear and convincing evidence, after considering the custody and placement factors, that equalizing physical placement would not be in the child's best interest. The bill also makes the geographic separation of the parties an additional custody and placement factor for the court to consider in every case when determining custody and periods of physical placement.

Under current law, if legal custody or physical placement is contested, the court must state in writing why its findings relating to legal custody or physical placement are in the best interest of the child. Under the bill, if legal custody or physical placement is contested and the court orders sole legal custody or a placement schedule that does not equalize placement between the parties to the highest degree, the court must state both orally and in writing the reasons for its order.

Under current law, after two years after making an initial order of legal custody or physical placement, a court may revise legal custody or physical placement in a manner that substantially alters the time a parent may spend with his or her child if the court finds that the modification is in the best interest of the child and that there has been a substantial change in circumstances since the last order was made. There is a rebuttable presumption that continuing the current allocation of decision making concerning the child and continuing the child's physical placement with the parent with whom the child resides for the greater period of time is in the best interest of the child, and a change in the economic circumstances or marital status of a party is not sufficient to meet the standard for modification. The bill changes the rebuttable presumption that applies to modifications after two years after an initial order of legal custody or physical placement. Under the bill, there is a rebuttable presumption that the standard for modification is met, that is, that modification is in the best interest of the child and that there has been a substantial change in circumstances since the last order was made, if either of the following has occurred: 1) a parent has modified his or her lifestyle or the location of his or her residence to an extent that affects the amount of time the parent is able to care for the child; or 2) a parent has successfully completed parenting classes, a drug or alcohol abuse treatment program, or an anger management program to address a problem that previously hindered his or her ability to care for the child. In addition, the bill deletes the provision that makes a change in the economic circumstances or marital status of a party insufficient to meet the standard for modification. The effect of this change is to make a change in economic circumstances or marital status
The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. 767.41 (4) (a) 2. of the statutes is amended to read:

767.41 (4) (a) 2. In determining the allocation of periods of physical placement, the court shall consider each case on the basis of the factors in sub. (5) (am), subject to sub. (5) (bm). The court shall set a placement schedule that allows the child to have regularly occurring, meaningful periods of physical placement with each parent and that maximizes the amount of time the child may spend with each parent, taking into account geographic separation and accommodations for different households is in the best interest of the child. The presumption under this subdivision is rebutted if the court finds by clear and convincing evidence, after considering all of the factors in sub. (5) (am), subject to sub. (5) (bm), that equalizing physical placement to the highest degree would not be in the child's best interest.

SECTION 2. 767.41 (5) (am) 5m. of the statutes is created to read:

767.41 (5) (am) 5m. The geographic separation of the parties.

SECTION 3. 767.41 (6) (a) of the statutes is amended to read:

767.41 (6) (a) If legal custody or physical placement is contested and the court orders sole legal custody or a placement schedule that does not equalize physical placement between the parties to the highest degree, the court shall state orally and in writing why its findings relating to legal custody or physical placement are in the best interest of the child the reasons for its order.

SECTION 4. 767.451 (1) (b) 2. (Intro.) of the statutes is amended to read:
767.451 (1) (b) 2. (Intro.) With respect to subd. 1., there is a rebuttable presumption that any of the following is sufficient to meet the standards for modification under subd. 1.:

SECTION 5. 767.451 (1) (b) 2. a. of the statutes is repealed and recreated to read:

767.451 (1) (b) 2. a. A parent modifying his or her lifestyle or the location of his or her residence to an extent that affects the amount of time the parent is able to care for the child.

SECTION 6. 767.451 (1) (b) 2. b. of the statutes is repealed and recreated to read:

767.451 (1) (b) 2. b. A parent having successfully completed parenting classes, a drug or alcohol abuse treatment program, or an anger management program to address a problem that previously hindered the parent's ability to care for the child.

SECTION 7. 767.451 (1) (b) 3. of the statutes is repealed.
