Approval of Minutes: A motion to approve the March 10, 2017 minutes was made by T.J. Nee, seconded by Supervisor Dommershausen. Motion carried.

Old Business: Members discussed about information on MTM what the members had asked for. Lynn Jones provided Ryan Booth of the information from May 8, 2015. The matter was on how issues are being addressed on a personal level with members, e.g. the membership and ridership for the State and for Rock County, average time on hold on We Care line, number and results of vehicle checks. Ryan Booth advised he would send an email to MTM, Jess Krueger who replaced Dana Schultz.

Ryan Booth provided information on Appendix 9 of the 2013 Human Services Transportation Coordination Plan. Ryan advised information currently listed needs to be updated and Ryan has found new transportation that needs to be added. Ryan will work with Joyce Lubben getting information added.

New Business: Ryan Booth talked about new transportation called GoGoGrandparent. GoGoGrandparent turns on demand transportation companies like Uber into services that help families take better care of older adults. Ryan advised this is fairly new so he has not heard much feedback on it. Ryan advised you can go to website and do a demo on how it works.
