Executive Summary

At this time, the Rock County Sheriff's Office is looking to purchase the Motorola Command Central Vault digital evidence storage, for use within our agency. In addition, the implementation of a body camera program throughout the agency, including both the Jail and Patrol Divisions, is in the beginning phase. WatchGuard is the current system for our Squad Cameras, and one that has been utilized for a number of years. The Sheriff's Office has been satisfied with that system, and looking to purchase the proposed WatchGuard brand of body cameras as well. WatchGuard, and the current Spillman Records Management System, are both owned by Motorola. The justification for purchasing the Motorola Command Center Vault, is to create a seamless integration of video evidence, with the current reporting methods.

With the integration, the Deputies and Correctional Officers will be able to complete their report, and enter evidence into the integrated system. When the time comes to review reports, the Deputy/Officer will be able to review the report, and pull up the pictures or video from the same system. This will save time, effort and reduce the potential for mistakes, which can happen while dealing with various systems, which may not function together.

Also, the District Attorney's Office will be able to review the reports, and view the digital evidence from the Sheriff's Office's single platform. This eliminates the process of having to have multiple links, to pull information from different sources in order to prepare their cases.

Due to WatchGuard being our current platform for digital video at this time, the fact that Watchguard has been purchased by Motorola, and will be integrated with Spillman, and that the Sheriff's Office is beginning the process of obtaining WatchGuard body cameras, makes the purchase of the Motorola Command Central Vault digital evidence storage program a logical choice.

The Sheriff's Office will purchase the Motorola Command Central Vault digital evidence storage from Motorola Solutions, Inc. at the direction of the IT department. The cost of the Motorola Command Central Vault digital evidence storage is $72,250.

The funding is included in the Sheriff's 2020 Law Enforcement Services (LES) budget line 21-2100-0000-62491 for $41,740. A transfer request from budget line 21-2100-0000-63501 will be completed for the remaining balance of $30,510.

This resolution authorizes Rock County Information Technology to purchase the Motorola Command Central Vault system at a cost not to exceed $72,250.
